June 2023

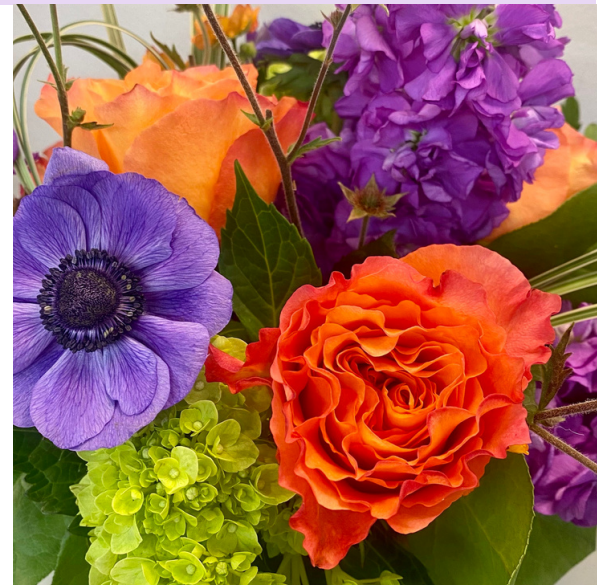

Tarot Card of the Month

Knight of Cups - Follow your heart this month, y'all!

This is the card of wandering and following what feels right, getting in touch with your emotions, and having a little adventure or romance. This is full permission to be a little indulgent and go with the flow in a way that makes you feel comfortable and free. Pulling Knight of Cups just feels right with Venus moving into Leo in June where it will eventually station retrograde in July. Pay attention to where your heart is leading you this month as those relationships, dynamics, needs and feels will get reassessed with the retrograde between July and August.

Sagittarius Full Moon

This Full Moon at 13 degrees Sagittarius is at 10:41PM CST on June 3rd. Sagittarius wants to learn, to grow, to expand their world view and with the full moon here it's helping us to really get clear on how we've held ourselves back from greater understanding on the things we want to do in the world. The moon will be trine to Mars and the Sun will be sextile to Mars and to Chiron. These are really helpful for us to see how we've played it small in the past and how we're going to move through the world a little differently in our actions as we're recognizing what's possible with our passions and desires. The Moon and Sun are square to Saturn giving a bit more weight to the realizations and helping us to lay out some plans and goals we can work towards. In the sign ruled by Jupiter this is the perfect full moon to work with on your big picture plans.
