November 2023

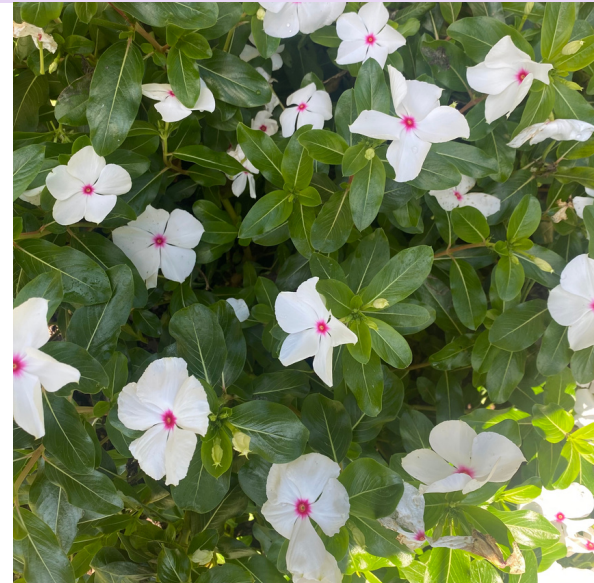

Tarot Card of the Month

Ten of Swords - Not the loveliest card for a month ahead but often very needed. This is sometimes referred to as the “No” card, it signifies endings and something that you can no longer spend mental energy on. It’s an I’m so over it I can’t even kind of vibe. In November we’re likely going to have let go of something that has run its course and it’s going to take putting up a boundary for it to truly be done. The nice thing about getting Ten of Swords is once you close the chapter you’re going to feel much more free to move forward and will have greater capacity to take on something that’s more aligned with you.

Gemini Full Moon

This Full Moon is at 4 degrees Gemini on Monday, November 27th at 3:16AM. The Sun will be conjunct Mars and both the Sun and Moon will be squaring Saturn. This is a make or break kind of full moon, Saturn the planet of boundaries and long term responsibility is asking us this full moon to release what actions or relationships we can no longer continue and with Mars in the mix we’re likely to want to communicate this in a passionate and heated kind of way. This T-square is offset by Virgo showing us that having a plan and getting your details in order before you have that conversation will go a long way in making sure that your message is well received. As always with Mars involved, try to listen then respond instead of react.
